

Becker

July 10, 2024

"I walked into the animal shelter for my very first cat less than a month after I moved into my own apartment and fell in love with Becker. Becker loved to chat, lay in laps, and get belly rubs. He never met a stranger and was always quick to welcome anyone who came through the door. He was the sweetest, most loving cat, and he is very missed."