

Bella

October 6, 2023

As words can't even express how Bella was truly we can say she was the most loyal dog and the best baby to get some love from. If you were sad she was right there to cheer you up. Even if you weren't sad she'd still be right there just to be there. She loved her toys so much, she had the tendency to dump her entire basket of toys when she wanted attention or she'd throw Mr. Quackers (favorite duck toy) at you. She loved to give shakes and high fives to anyone and everyone especially if you had cookies or bones. She
