

Bella

June 9, 2025

Bella was adopted from a kill shelter in San Antonio in April 2013 at the age of seven months. We flew her to Las Vegas, Nevada where we lived at the time and taught her how to be a dog. She was my running partner and my husband's best friend. She loved her best cat, Roxie, and there wasn't a cat alive that she didn't want to meet and make friends. Rest well sweet girl.

Missing you so much. 💔
