

Benji

February 7, 2024

Benji was an amazing little fur brother, he came into our lives after my mother miscarried. For 14 years he was by her side making sure she never felt alone. He was loving, gentle and a great protector. He was a constant in our lives that will be missed greatly. We love you little fur brother! We'll miss you always.