

Bizi

November 29, 2025

Bizi was a tiny dog with a great big heart. She loved her family, jerky treats, and squeaky toys. She was shy with new people and new dogs but going on walks with her Big-Dog siblings made her feel especially brave and bold. One of her favorite pastimes was sneak-attacking her sheepdog brother when he wasn't expecting it (he was always expecting it.) She disliked cats and had an ongoing feud with all of the neighborhood squirrels. She did her best to protect her house and family from the constant threat of her fluffy-tailed foes. She was so very loved and will be dearly missed by everyone who knew her.
