

Bonnie Grant

January 26, 2025

Bonnie was my first rabbit and during these 6 years she made such an impact on our lives. She was the most luscious loaf bunny! I wanted to make her my emotional support animal and travel the world with her one day. It hurts so bad seeing her gone. She's helped me through so much. Every time I held her I just felt nothing but happiness and love. We called her sassy. She was cuddly and so soft but if she didn't get her way she would thump and take her anger out on the furniture. She was a free roam rabbit and would binky on the bed every morning if we didn't get up and give her food. Oh how I'm gonna miss those moments. We all just loved her so unconditionally. Binky on my sweet girl and rest in peace. I can't wait to kiss her soft little head in heaven ♡
