

Buddy

February 3, 2026

From being spoiled with all the best a chinchilla could want to laughing when something happened to his French fry addiction. Buddy was loved by everyone who encountered him. He was always happy for scratches and treats. He loved running around causing chaos. We all will miss you deeply. We love you Buddy!