

Buffy

April 22, 2023

Buffy, “buff buff,” “buffalooski,” “tbbb,” “ratchet” (2005-2023). Buffy was a gorgeous, green-eyed calico, found wandering country roads in Saginaw, MI. In 2005, Buffy found her home with Tara, who adopted her and gave her a forever home. Buffy was adaptable – she lived in multiple states with her roommate, Tara, and later, Tara’s husband Jonathan. In their home, she enjoyed occasional escapes and adventures outside, warm sun, and open windows. Buffy was known for her dry wit and timely delivered sarcastic insults. She was never one to shy away from dark cubbies or a quicky delivered skippity pop, and would always show up in moments of sadness to offer her support with her trademark grimace. Though Tara and Jonathan already miss her deeply, they are sure she is snuggled in a delivery box in the sky as they write with her long time love, Cheney.
