

Buster

January 12, 2023

Buster was very rambunctious yet protective, he loved barking at the mail man and anyone who came near our yard we called him our neighborhood terrorist lol. He loved "Grandma and Grandpa" very much! Never left their side , his favorite thing to do was to beg for food and always ate cake with the family around birthdays he will be greatly missed after being with us for over 15 years.