

Caly

February 16, 2023

Caly has been with me through most of my major life events. She was there when I moved to Florida and back, got married, bought a house, added two other fur siblings, and two human siblings. She loved anyone that ever had the privilege to meet her. Fourteen years together wasn't enough. Love you baby girl.