

Charlie

December 3, 2025

Charlie, also known as Char Char was born on May 5, 2019. We've found him as a surrender at the shelter and gave him a place to call home again. He was a beautiful, chonky boy who loved to eat and watch TV with his mommy and daddy. When he'd sleep with us, his purrs were as loud as a lawnmower and his steps were as loud as a giant when he'd walk around the house. We always knew it was him.

He was filled with so much love. He learned to trust us, to come close, to sleep by our feet or curl into our sides. He followed us from room to room, always wanting to be near. He had this gentle soul, the kind that made you feel chosen every time he blinked at you.

Charlie wasn't just a pet, he was our baby, our comfort. He made our home brighter, warmer, softer. And even though his time with us was far too short, the love he gave us was bigger than anything we could've ever asked for.

We will always miss his big stomps, his loud purrs, and the way he'd look at us like we were his whole world. But he'll always be with us, in our hearts, in our memories, and soon, back home with us where he belongs.

Thank you, Charlie, for choosing us. For loving us. For letting us be your family.

We'll love you forever.
