

Chongo

December 4, 2024

Chongo lived a long but short 16 years. He was one feisty dog but had a huge heart who loved his mom, sissy and Bubba. In his free time when he wasn't looking out the window for chipmunks he would play with his two favorite toys, a bone and a stuffed koala bear. Chongo was always ready to go bye bye whether it be by car or dirt bikes he would chase us down just to get one more ride. And at the end of the day he would chow down on some pork roast, his favorite meal. He will never be forgotten, will always be loved and missed till we meet again. Rest in paradise Chongo aka ching o bling, taco paco, changorama, chang, taco and ongo.

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Sheila Sprague - December 15, 2024 at 05:09 PM

“ Sheila Sprague lit a candle in memory of Chongo

Sheila Sprague - December 15, 2024 at 04:55 PM

“ Not a day, hour, minute or second goes by that I dont miss you my sweet chongo bear 🥺 sissy loves you. I'll forever look for you in the stars

Sheila Sprague - December 15, 2024 at 04:53 PM

Sheila Sprague - December 15, 2024 at 05:40 PM