My sweet girl. This month 10 years ago my boyfriend was calling me and telling me he got a puppy. Since then, you have been through every season of our life with us. You have seen more miles on the road with your daddy than any other dog would see in 5 lifetimes. You have watched us grow, get married, and start a family. Georgie hasn't seen a day without you since she was 6 weeks old. Kyle has grown up with you her whole life. Up until these last couple months you have had the energy of the sassy little puppy Ty rescued you as. You have been the most loyal, loving, supportive, and fun companion anyone could ever ask for. We will miss you sweet girl and we are thankful we got to share life with you.
