Coconut

February 15 2009 - July 1 2024

Coconut aka Nuggit aka Flufferbutt has gone over the rainbow bridge 🌈 She has touched so many in her 15 1/2 years. She was born in Key West Florida and lived a full life of travel and adventure. Her first food was coconut jelly from the rastas on the Florida beaches. She saw both coasts and swam in the Pacific and Atlantic oceans. She saw the redwoods, Mount Shasta and Grand Canyon and many more sights along the way. I already miss you grunting at me that it was supper time. My heart hurts 💔 but my soul knows you're not hurting anymore. Momma loves you sweet angel 🥺 you and Bruiser behave and I'll see you again someday
