Oh my Super Dooper Cooper Cash. You were such a good friend. From day 1 when we picked you up, I knew you were going to be special. Everytime I headed out the door, you were ready to go on the hunt just like the bird dog in you were bred to do. Trying to get you to climb that tree to " get that bird" was a sight. But for some reason you only wanted to lay there and watch the birds eat your food. I will miss watching you soak up the sun in the morning as you lay there looking, staring out the door waiting for that squirrel you could never catch. I will definately miss waking up in the morning and having to find you before putting my feet on the floor. I will miss the petting and playing in the water you loved so much. Oh how I WILL MISS as I already do, " My Super Dooper Cooper". Now lets go get that squirrel.
