

Ezzy

June 8, 2024

Ezzy, you unexpectedly came into our lives and proved to be quite the fighter, but unfortunately, you needed your mommy more than we could provide. You crossed over the rainbow bridge to join her, leaving us heartbroken after only 11 days with you. We will miss your tiny but fierce presence in our lives and hope that you give your momma Ezra a big kiss for us. Rest in peace little one.
