Freya was our momma, our OG & the true glue for our little pack. She will be missed by so many that loved her. Her want for constant butt scratches was epic. She didn't like many people but if you scratched the butt you were a friend forever. Kisses were rare but when you did get one it was always sneaky & hidden from everyone else. Secret kisses were the best. She was her daddy's girl completely from the moment he brought her home, he was the only one to get kisses regularly and she was always so happy when he came home. Would wiggle & nip til he loved on her 1st before anyone else. 11 1/2 years with her wasn't enough. Atlas misses his partner & Vulcan & Nyx miss their momma just as fiercely as we do. Freya will always hold a huge piece of our hearts but knowing that she is with her big brother Zeus over the rainbow bridge & that he was there when she crossed eases the pain slightly. We love & miss you sweet girl, rest easy Frey-Frey.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Atlas, Vulcan & Nyx
