

George

October 2, 2023

George came to live with me in Auburn WA in 2012 when he was 2 years old. He was a big, red friendly dog. He moved with me to Las Vegas NV and then to Clovis NM. He had a sweet disposition, didn't chase my cats and loved to share a Costco chicken. I'm not sure I will ever eat another now he's gone. As I always said when people asked what kind of dog he was "Him a good dog!" Thank you, George. I love you.
