

Gunner

September 15, 2025

We had gunner for 10 years. He was a good boy never met a stranger he loved everyone. (He wasn't a very good guard dog he would just look at whoever walked in and lay back down) in the last 4 or 5 years he became the boss of the house he would tell us when he wanted to go outside and when he didn't want to go. He was worse than a kid when it came to chair hopping. He stayed in my son's room and would kick him out of his bed. We miss him and love him so much the house sure isn't the same without him.
