

Herbie

August 7, 2023

Herbie, you were a joy to be around. You were the light of my life, your quirky attitude, sweetest meows and the loving look in your eyes when you saw me.

You were always there for me when I needed you, you knew when I was sad and made sure to help cheer me up. Your beautiful fur had caught many a tears of mine. I'll miss our nightly cuddles and you sleeping on my pillow, with your head resting on my head. Your constant want to be by my side, with your paw always resting on me.

14 short wonderful years was not long enough, forever wouldn't have been long enough. You were my "ride or die" bubby. I know you hated car rides, but you never made a sound on the planes we were on together. Everybody who met you instantly feel in love with you.

I'll forever remember you loving your bottom being patted as rising it up for more. Then getting irritated when the pats stopped.

Thank you for coming into my life at the young age of six weeks old, it was pure joy watching you grow up.

I'll forever love and miss you. I'll see you again soon my love bug.

“ Forever in my heart. You always followed me when you knew it was time for bed. Most of the time, you were on my pillow before I could even lay down. ”
