Jackson Campbell

4/11/18 to 1/29/24

Jackson came into our life as a rescue. We adopted him to be a “little” brother to our Mikey. From day one Jackson and Mikey were inseparable. Jackson was very protective of his brother.

Jackson was always full of energy, very verbal and playful. His life was his ball! He loved to have his ball thrown so he could run and retrieve it. He just never learned (or wanted to) drop it for you on command. When he was forced to come inside for “bedtime” his favorite spot was on the couch, preferably on his dad’s lap. He didn’t know that he stretched out as long as his dad.

When we learned Jackson was very sick back on December 8, 2023, we were devastated. We knew our days were limited with Jackson, but we continued to love him even more and made the best of his last days. We were so thankful to find Dr. Jisha to assist Jackson in his cross over the rainbow bridge where he can chase balls once again.

His brother Mikey misses him dearly. Our hearts are always with you Jackson! We will always love you and cherish the time we had together.
