

Jinger

December 24, 2012 - August 13, 2023

Jinger was a small but mighty girl. She brought so much happiness to our family. I will always cherish the naps we would take together and the way she would cuddle with me when I was upset. Many people despised the idea of having a small dog until they met Jinger, she convinced the toughest guy to carry her around like a princess. She was so loving to everyone.
