

Jojo Mansker

March 20, 2026

Jojo was a sweet and loving girl. She was always ready to play with her ball or her rope and she loved her squeaky toys. She was our little valentines puppy and while her time with us was short, it was filled with fun and lots of love. She will be forever in our hearts.