In Loving Memory of Kaos
Forever the Best Boy

Kaos passed away peacefully on January 22nd, cradled in his family's arms, exactly where he felt safest and most loved.

Kaos was more than just a dog. He was the one who would come up to you on a hard day and somehow make the stresses and headaches fade away. His presence was comforting, captivating, and unforgettable, no matter how brief the interaction, he always left a mark on the hearts of those he met.

Kaos lived for adventure. Whether it was exploring canyons and mountains, riding razors through the sand dunes with his momma, playing at the dog park with his brothers and sisters, or running through the snow he loved so much, Kaos was always by his family's side. He enjoyed his final days surrounded by the beauty of the mountains in Colorado, doing what he loved most.

Known for his big personality, Kaos kept his family entertained with his unmistakable howls, especially when it was time for breakfast or dinner. A devoted treat lover, he never turned one down. His playful spirit, loyalty, and affection left a lasting impression that will never fade.

His family finds peace knowing Kaos is reunited with his sister Knox running free, chasing birds, and enjoying all the treats he could ever want. Though there will always be an empty space in their hearts, they are forever grateful for the time they were able to be loved by such a special soul.

He was the best and coolest dog, and he will be missed beyond words.

Forever loved. Forever missed. 🐾🐾

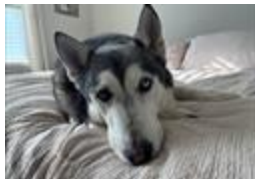

Tribute Wall

“ You were never just a dog you were family, our baby, our best friend. You filled our days with love, laughter, and a kind of joy that only you could give.

Loving you was one of the greatest honors of our lives, and saying goodbye has been one of the hardest things we've ever done. Our hearts are broken, but they are so full because of you.

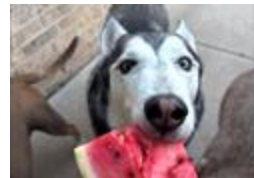

Thank you for every moment, every memory, and every ounce of love. We miss you endlessly and will carry you with us always. Forever our best boy, Kaos.
