

Kiki

January 11, 2023

Early Spring 2011, Kiki showed up in our yard (in heat). We searched for her owners through various methods, but were unable to find them. We decided to keep her, had her spayed, and soon realized she was the best dog ever! We are grateful for the time we were able to spend with her.