Kujoe was the friendliest chiweenie you could of ever met. He loved other animals, going on adventures, & most of all his best human friend Tag. Kujoe shared 15 wonderful & very spoiled years with his family that loved him dearly. Kujoe never new a stranger & was always the first to introduce himself to a new friend. When he wasn't adventuring he could be found sunbathing, getting something stuck to his nose, or cuddled up under a blanket with his feet & tail poking out. While Kujoe maybe be gone physically, his spirit can be felt keeping his humans & his siblings company as they go on new adventures.
