

Lady Kathleen

December 6, 2025

Lady filled our home with four beautiful years of love, laughter, and pure joy. She was fun, gentle, a little goofy, and always the first to make us smile. Her heart belonged to Peyton. Every night she curled up beside her, offering comfort and warmth in the quiet way only the best dogs can.

She loved playing fetch with her squeaker toy — even if she believed the game ended after she caught it. Bringing it back? Optional. Squeaking it? Absolutely required.

No matter how long we'd been gone, she greeted us — tail wagging, whole body wiggling, eyes full of love. She made every homecoming feel like magic. Though her life was far too short, the love she gave us was full and forever. Lady was more than a pet; she was a source of comfort, laughter, and endless sweetness.
