

Leo

May 12, 2023

Leo

He's been my best friend for 11 years and the absolute light of my life. No matter the circumstances he was always the happiest little dog! He was definitely a people person, he loved any and all pets from whoever was willing to do so. His favorite toys were little toy monkeys of any kind! Those always brightened up his day along with a bacon strip! He lived a long happy life full of love and happiness! He will be missed dearly.