A Tribute to Lucy

Lucy wasn't just a dog—she was my best friend, my steady companion, and the soft place I could always land. From the moment she came into my life as a tiny puppy, she carved out a space in my heart that no one else ever could.

She went everywhere with me, always ready for the next adventure, tail wagging and eyes full of love. In the quiet moments, when life felt heavy, Lucy was there—curled up beside me, letting me cry into her fur, offering comfort without needing words. Her presence eased my anxiety in a way nothing else could. She simply knew when I needed her.

Lucy was more than a pet—she was my soul dog. The one who understood me, accepted me, and loved me unconditionally. She grew with me, through the years and the changes, always a constant, always love.

My heart is shattered by her passing, but I find comfort in knowing that she will always be with me. Whether in memory, in spirit, or simply in the love she left behind, Lucy will forever be my forever doggie.

Thank you, Lucy, for every snuggle, every joy, every moment of peace you brought me. I will carry you with me always.
