

Marley Flores

Mr. Marley, he was a famous little boy in our household. He brought us plenty of laughs and cry's, but most importantly he brought love into our home. He was always excited to play fetch (even if he didn't bring his toy back) and loved to army crawl throughout the house. He loved being flipped around and loved causing chaos for everyone. He truly was an exceptional best friend to have. We will love and miss you dearly, our sweet boy.
