

Mi Amigo

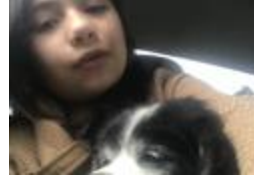

June 10, 2024

Mi Amigo was such a loving, happy, affectionate boy, always ready to play and perform. He would play tug or war, herd a basketball around the yard or inside, and fetch items thrown for him. He was Lillianne Cole's protector dog, and best friend. Sixteen years old, he was a great blessing provided by God for my Father, myself, and for Lillianne. His love and affectionate kisses will be missed. He also once saved my life, waking me due to a gas leak from under the house.
