

Midnight Storm

February 20, 2025

Midnight Storm was a sweet, sassy and smart dog and a faithful and loyal friend! Whether it was squirrel chasing, splashing in the pond, bird scaring, taking long walks, protecting me from strangers or racing around the yard, she did it with all her heart. She was an expert at giving tiny whisper barks and patiently waiting for a treat. And if you gave her one, she was your friend forever. I loved her and miss her so much. The house seems quiet and empty without her.
