Midnight Duarte

My brother saved her when she was a kitten. I decided to take her in naming her Midnight. She loved to cuddle with her Mommie. She would always make me laugh with her zoomies and hold my hand with her paw. She would follow me everywhere in the house. I will miss our little meow arguments, the little boops and you trying to steal some of my food! Thank you Midnight for being my little angel when I needed you the most. I know you are playing with your big sister Rockruff.
