

Nollie

December 8, 2025

Nollie Bear was the epitome of sweetness with a dash of stubbornness. Her heart belonged to two things: her momma and her undying love for chicken. Fiercely loyal and full of personality, she was a little ball of energy who never met a challenge she couldn't face—except maybe a piece of chicken too high up! Nollie left paw prints all over our hearts.

Tribute Wall

LM

“ Nollie was the bestest girl. She was loving and always happy to see you. I remember the day she wanted to go for a walk at the park and was just happy to see everyone there. I loved seeing how she took care of her old stuffed babies and would lay in her bed with them. She will be forever missed.

Lana McKown - December 18, 2025 at 11:03 AM