On Wednesday I had to say goodbye to my OG. He would've been 17 years old next month! It was one of the hardest things I've ever had to do, but I held him in my arms as he took his last breath. petri you were the best lil buddy and companion I could have asked for. You lived an exciting life and I'm sure there's no other dog that could match your experiences! I love you so much and you will forever be in my heart.
