

Polly

September 28, 2025

Polly Wally Doodle was our sweet little girl! She demanded love and affection from everyone she met! If you didn't bend down to pet her beautiful red coat, she would circle between your legs like a cat, rubbing up against you with her 40 pound frame. She was the most loyal bully we've ever had, following us into every room, demanding attention, and often resembling the family "speed bump" in the kitchen, hallway, or closet. Her favorite activities were sunbathing on the porch with her bully-brother Archie, barking at the Amazon delivery guy, cuddling with mom on the sofa, or knocking over dad's boots in the closet. She loved her humans fiercely. She will be forever missed. "Let everything that has breath, praise the Lord."
