

Pumpkin

September 15, 2025

Pumpkin showed up at our home about a year ago with his mom Calypso, and brother Cloud. They were strays hanging out across the street, and decided to adopt us. Pumpkin was so extremely affectionate, and loved his mom and brother very much. His mom has had a total of 10 additional kittens since they chose us, and he loved playing with them, and napping with them, and showing them how very caring we are for them. Our stray babies have brought us so much joy, and we are heart broken to have lost him. We will continue to care for his family, until we can either find them amazing homes, or my husband caves and says we can keep them. We love you so much our fuzzy little Pumpkin boy 🐱🎃☐
