

Rein

September 11, 2013 - August 13, 2023

This was Rein. She was born on 9/11/2013 she would have been 10 years old next month. She was my best friend. She always slept under the covers of the bed and hogged the entire bed but she was the best cuddle buddy. She needed constant love and attention, if you stopped petting her she would paw you to make you continue petting her and she wouldn't stop until you did. She was very stubborn and pretended like she couldn't hear me when she knew she was in trouble
