

Rosco, Bruno, and Ozzy

December 2, 2025

Rosco, Bruno and Ozzy crossed the Rainbow Bridge together on Tuesday, December 2, 2025. These babies will be missed more than words can say.

While they all three sometimes thought they were human, Bruno would carry a full conversation with you and let you know exactly how he felt. If you weren't interested in "talking," he absolutely loved giving out free kisses to everyone he encountered. He loved being a big brother to his cat and dog siblings.

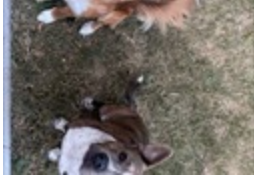

Rosco was one of the sweetest babies ever. He would let everyone know just how much they were loved by barking and barking and barking at them. Even if someone stepped outside for a couple minutes, upon stepping back in, they would be greeted by Rosco as if he hadn't seen them in months. He could sit and shake and just be so cute and lovable. Ozzy was still a baby when he crossed the Rainbow Bridge. Though his time with us was short, he knew he was our baby. He was bottle fed starting at four days old. His human mom loved calling for her "Pretty Boy" because he believed that she was his biological mom. Not only was he part human, he was also part dog. He thought he was a big dog just like his big, strong brothers, Bruno and Rosco.

Bruno, Rosco and Ozzy will all be dearly missed but we find comfort knowing they are there together and with many loved ones up in Heaven.
