From 04/24. - To 11/ 26

ROXAS. Martinez. - One might say animals sometime come to you for the soul purpose to show what your missing in yourself as a person or life at-least thats what Roxas. Did.

With her. Personality as. Strong as a wolf when she strolled up by herself. At a family cookout. Looking for a family. As she found one.

Enormous energy that would keep you on your toes. As she. Climbed on the curtains the counters hanging from them. Or things she rushed to play with everyone.jumping on their backs or simply chasing them she was so playful...

Roxas...

Loving as always when she was done she would make sure to come to bed every night. To. Sleep. Making sure you knew she loved the home she was. Meant to have and found. Gone too. Soon. Too young.

She will be missed .. Always ... - I Love you. Roxas.
