In Loving Memory of Sadie Wolfe

Sadie Lou Wolfe, the beloved Cocker Spaniel of the Wolfe family from Clayton, New Mexico, has crossed the rainbow bridge at the age of 15. Sadie brought the Wolfe household immense joy throughout her years. Her sweet personality and unwavering loyalty endeared her to all who knew her.

Sadie had a passion for life that was infectious. Her love for food knew no bounds, as she liked almost everything she tried. However, it was her fondness for watermelon that seemed to be the deepest. Fond memories will forever linger of Sadie's spirited nature during long walks, eagerly chasing rabbits with enthusiasm. Her presence illuminated every adventure, big or small.

But above all, Sadie's heart belonged to her family. She showered them with unconditional love, her adoring nature offering solace during both joyful and challenging times. We will miss you trying to steal food off our plate, we will miss you jumping in bed with us in the morning, and we will miss you coming home to you waiting for us.

May she find endless fields to roam, watermelons to eat, and rabbits to chase in the eternal sunshine beyond the Rainbow Bridge.

Rest in peace, our sweet Sadie Lou. You will be deeply missed.
