

Salem

October 21, 2024

A little black cat followed my daughter home from a run. The cat wouldn't leave and climbed a tree. She just cried and cried. My daughter called and said this black kitty needs a home. So I went and got her. I already had an older cat who hated her so Salem bided her time and became my best kitty after the older cat died. We went to sleep every night together. She had the best purrs! I miss her so much!!
