

Sally Bear

October 15, 2025

Sally Bear was a precious diamond she survived parvo as a pup. She was very loving, she brightened my days. She was my sunshine. She loved attention from her 5 human sisters and her nieces and nephews. She made sure than any other fur babies that we brought into the house knew she was the boss no matter how big or small. She is missed beyond measure.