

Saphira

February 6, 2023

Saphira was born on February 2, 2007. She was the runt of the litter and so full of life. She might have been tiny but she was ready to take on the world. She became my son's shadow and helped him overcome depression and learn to cope with his Adhd. She could sniff out treats a mile away. She was always happy and ready for adventure. During a camping trip one time she found the hidden bag of marshmallows and ate every last one. She didn't regret her mistake at all. She was our winter under the blanket cuddle bug and demanded a fire be built in the fireplace when she determine it was too cold. We owe her so much for the joy and love she gave us.
