

Shaddox

April 4, 2025

Shaddox was a tough girl she never showed pain. She was extremely goofy, loved to play her favorite toy was a pink pacifier squeaky toy and a red squeaky snake as seen in this picture. She loved snow, walks, sunbathing, but absolutely hated water. She was the sweetest yet shy and skittish at times you could ever meet. She would've been 10 in August. She was very loved and spoiled by me.
