

Shiloh Martinez

February 11, 2025

Shiloh was the first dog my husband I got together six and a half years ago when we met. Shiloh was best friend, and truly saved me after losing my childhood pet when I was 22. He was also the son of my husband's dog Echo that he had when we met. We had such a fun six and half years together. Some of Shilohs favorite things consisted of belly rubs, head scratches, kisses on his cheeks that made him warm and fuzzy, playing catch, and laying on the bed taking naps with mom and dad. Shiloh recently met his human baby brother, and absolutely adored him, and his brother sure did love him as well. Our home will never be complete without our sweet boy but we are so grateful for the times we did have. I tell everyone, we will meet Shiloh in the wildflowers when we get home.
