

Sky Hoyer

January 26, 2026

Sky crossed the rainbow bridge 1/26/2026 at the young age of thirteen from complications of diabetes. As most dogs, he was loyal, smart, protective and playful. To his family and anyone who knew him, he was the sweetest and most lovable pup to lay in your lap. Within his short life, he showed that he was a tough Blue Heeler after dealing with a rattle snake bite, 2 CCL surgeries and contracting diabetes that took his eyesight which never slowed him down. He will be sorely missed by loving pet parents who unapologetically spoiled him with anything and everything to make him comfortable throughout his life. Mommy and Daddy love and miss you so much but its now time to rest.
