

Soy

September 11, 2023

Soy was adopted and about five years old. He came from a place that made him distrustful of humans, but slowly came out of his shell. He became best friends with Sammy, and they loved one another very much. He also loved to chew up plants and went crazy for millet. He will be missed and we wish he could have stayed with us longer. Rest in peace Soy ♥