

Stella Noel Holloway

May 28, 2025

Stella was a beautiful soul in the form of a spirited female bull terrier. From the moment she came home, she filled her family's life with joy, laughter, and a little bit of chaos. She was famous for her zoomies, rolling onto her back with her paws in the air, and burrowing under the covers like it was her secret hideaway. But more than anything, Stella was a daddy's girl. She and her dad shared countless quiet moments together in the recliner, a bond of pure, simple love. She was also a great big sister to Dixie. In her five precious years, Stella left a mark on every heart in her home, and her memory will forever be cherished.

Tribute Wall

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album

Furrever Pet Crematory - June 04, 2025 at 10:14 AM

WH

That's my little girl. I'll always think of her. My best freind

William Holloway - June 04, 2025 at 12:22 PM