

Sumo

June 20, 2023

Sumo (Named because she was the fattest, fluffiest pup) came to our family over 16 years ago as a birthday present. She never cared much for playing, but she loved car rides, late night snacks and laundry day. She loved to sleep on our dirty clothes as long as she could. She was a loyal, loving dog. She has 3 younger fur siblings and many more humans that will miss her very much. Rest in Peace Sumo.
